100 Black Men of Macon Middle Georgia

100 Black Men of Macon-Middle Georgia, Inc. is one of the nearly 90 community based chapters of the national organization 100 Black Men of America, Inc. Since 1963, 100 Black Men of America, a non-profit organization headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia, has steadily grown in prominence as one of our country's pre-eminent support organizations for the African-American community.

Project Reach College Scholarship Fund

In September of 1998, The 100 Black Men of Macon-Middle Georgia, Inc., selected a graduating 5th grade class from our inner city school and committed to providing full scholarships to all students who completed high school and enrolled in any form of postsecondary education or training at an accredited institution. In addition to providing ongoing academic support to the students as they progress through school. This support will be in the form of one-to-one tutoring, workshops on various topics and career possibilities, and exposure to educational institutions and cultural activities.
